To Locutionist Little Mary

The Blessed Mother first came to Little Mary in a dream in August of 1994 and has received over 3000 messages from Jesus and Mary. She wrote the first message on January 11, 1995 and writes the messages in notebooks and shares them with her spiritual advisor.

January 11, 1995, Wednesday ~ Be Silent and Hear My Words.
My daughter, I have protected you. You were a virgin but then chose to become a mother. Look to the highest and crown Him with many crowns. Jesus reigns and is above all the earth. Cast away all your doubts and remain with us. This earth is so full of sorrow and doubt. Look to the skies because God can fulfill your every need. He had promised to keep you, hold you and protect you for He is your true Father and I your true Mother. Rejoice in the Lord always, again I say, rejoice. Be silent and hear my words for I am with you. Look at my heart as I am in yours.

January 12, 1995, Thursday ~ From the Lord Jesus: Look inside the Flower.
Look inside the flower. There was once this tiny seed. Now your petals will open and you will blossom and grow in me. Keep your yes open and beware of dark times. Blessed is the fruit of the womb, Jesus. Stay close to me and you will see the glory and power of eternity.

"From the very beginning my spiritual advisor was chosen by the Blessed Mother. My job as a messenger is to write and relay the messages. I have to ask God everyday for the strength and grace needed to do this. This is not always easy, it is not like writing a letter, and every word I write is embedded in my heart. Some messages are very strong and you feel Jesus' and Blessed Mother's pain."

In 2004 Fatima Priest, Fr. Robert J. Fox's wrote a book called "Messages from the Heart of Our Mother" that contains messages from Jesus and the Mother of God, given to Little Mary. Our Blessed Mother and Jesus gave these messages with a note of urgency, stressing they are for the world. The Blessed Mother uses a certain style directed to all for as a good Mother, she desires to have her messages touch each and every one of her children. Mother Mary speaks in simple words and phrases so that her teachings can be understood by anyone.

MESSAGE #1240 from the Blessed Mother October 25, 1997

My daughter, Heaven awaits those who believe and do the Father's Will.

It is not always easy to do the Father's Will, for one does not always understand the work that they must do for Our Lord and that is why one must trust and believe that whatever God asks you to do, it is for good reason. For God's plans are mighty and when carried out, souls will be saved. If one is not patient, then God's plans cannot be carried out. It is through obedience that one grows and learns to trust, for without obedience one will step ahead of God.

The answers will not always be given to those who do the Father's Will, for then one would not learn to trust. The answers are given in God's most perfect timing because God knows how much each child can comprehend. God prepares His children first so they stay strong in their faith through all trials and tribulation. Through God's grace, one is strengthened and prepared along the way.

The problem today is that many want instant answers. They want to do what they want to do, thus refusing how God wants to direct them. Many then become frustrated and give up because they refuse the guidance needed to stay whole. Many question God due to lack of faith or because of fear. Many do not see themselves the way God sees them, so they refuse to believe that they can do what God is asking of them. This is why so many never do what God is asking of them.

My people, there is no longer time to ignore God. You must be more willing to pick up your cross so more can be accomplished in these times. You must believe that God knows what you can do. You must quit doubting every time God speaks to you, for then God's work cannot be carried through. You must start confiding in God so your relationship can grow, for without coming to know God, you will only become weaker, which will cause you to deny God.

You need to tell God how you feel so that God can help you sort out your feelings, for your thoughts and emotions are what pull you away. It is your desires that lead you astray, for your desires can be very selfish because of your insecurities and weaknesses. One must ask themselves today, are they truly doing what Our Lord is asking of them or are you only pleasing yourselves? Are you walking the road of Calvary or are you taking the easier way out? Do you truly love God or are you denying God?

I say to each of you, surrender and do the Father's Will no matter how hard it seems, for God will always be your strength. God will guide you and teach you the more perfect way. God will mold you and purify you on this earth if you allow God to. God will discipline you in the areas where you are weak so you become stronger in your faith. God will never leave you, so please remove that fear of thinking you will have to walk alone. God will always protect you and provide you with the answers that you need to know.

So trust, my people, and become more confident in Our Lord so you do not hinder the grace and gifts that God wants to bestow on you. Be more trusting that God will always see you through. Be not angry or do not blame God when things don't go your way, for in time, all will be perfect if you stay true to Our Lord.

Now, go forth as true believers so that God can work through you, for then your lives will be less stressful because much peace and joy will be given to you. Be more committed to serve Christ so you stay loyal to Our Lord and keep your eyes focused towards Heaven, for then no job will ever be too difficult for you. For Heaven is eternal and awaits all those who believe and do the Father's Will. Amen.

MESSAGE #1261 from the Blessed Mother November 14, 1997

My daughter, Busyness takes quiet time away from Our Lord; it causes a restless spirit and an unpeaceful heart. So take the time needed to truly hear Our Lord, for then you will have peace throughout the day.

Those who take the time to come to Mass are those who use their time more wisely, for they are fed the food needed to be strong in this world. Through God's grace they are given the strength to overcome the evil and temptations of this world. When one takes time for God, one's time is then multiplied, for they are given the strength to do great work for Our Lord. If one is unpeaceful, they spend much time worrying instead of going forth in Jesus' Name, but when one is peaceful, much more can be accomplished. When one is joyful, one then has a greater capacity to perform their duties.

So be wise, start your day in prayer and come to Mass more often, for then physically you will be energized to do more for Our Lord. Spiritually, you will be fed the food needed for your soul; you will be given the grace needed to stay calm and patient to those around you. Emotionally, you will feel better throughout the day, for true happiness comes from knowing Jesus. So be wise, take the time needed to truly come to know Our Lord. Be wise, receive Jesus more often in the Eucharist, for then you will stay strong spiritually so you can do great work for Our Lord.

Can you not see how unhealthy many have become? Many are depressed, they are sad and lonely. Many worry about the future, which pulls them away from Our Lord. Many no longer trust in God to see them through. Many go through life preparing for the future instead of spending each precious moment with Our Lord.

If one does not spend quality time with Our Lord each day, one will never be prepared for future events, for one will not know how to trust or confide in God. One will not hear God because they never took the time to listen. Each new day, one should be preparing their soul. They should be praying and then listening to how God is directing them. They should be reading Scripture so God's Words are imbedded in their heart. They should receive Jesus more often in the Eucharist instead of waiting weekly. For without God's grace and teachings, one will not stay strong for Our Lord.

Those who pray and fast, are those who hunger for Our Lord. But those who become too busy for God, are those who are more attracted to the world. They then place their desires before God. Because of so much sin and evil in the world, one must spend more time in prayer, for it is through prayer that one will stay more focused on Our Lord. This is why families must pray together daily, for without prayer or unity, they will become more attracted to the ways of the world. For the world seeks pleasure through material wealth instead of God.

Those who are weak, weak in their faith, will fall into Satan's traps because they refused to take care of their soul. Those who buy and who never give, are refusing the poor. Those who never spend time with God are refusing God's grace. Those who are only seeking fame and fortune will not succeed because they did not give glory to God. Those who are turning on their brothers and sisters are also turning their backs on God. Without a healthy relationship with God, one will not be able to survive without falling into Satan's traps. So come, come back to Church, come to know God now.

For this is the time where you must seek refuge in Jesus' Most Sacred Heart. This time has been allowed for each of you to prepare your soul. So be wise, wake up and adhere to Our pleas, for your time is running out and without God, your supplies will run out. Start depending on God instead of your material wealth. Take time, my children, to truly come to know Our Lord, for then you will be secure and directed through all storms. For God's love will always remain for His children. God will provide for those who share, share of their wealth. God will provide for those who trust and who depend on God.

So pray, my children, so you never doubt or lose hope in Almighty God. Go to God daily, for then you will have peace in your heart each new day. God is waiting, so come now and adore Our Lord, for this time is precious because of God's love for you. Amen.

MESSAGE #1287 from the Blessed Mother December 7, 1997

My daughter, Because of God's love for His children, God has chosen many in these times to go forth and spread God's words. Those who go forth and who share their faith, shall be truly blessed. They will be filled with the Holy Spirit and they will speak in love. They will know the truth because God will teach them.

Because of so much darkness in the world, God is asking all those who believe to share the Gospel so more have time to repent and prepare their soul. So be glad that you have each been chosen to take part in fulfilling God's plans. Be glad by being thankful for this time that has been allowed. Be thankful for the groups that have been formed and for those who come and gather in Jesus' name, for they are being prepared and with God's grace, they will stay strong, strong for Our Lord. By joining hands with one another and through prayer, you will each become true warriors for Our Lord.

By sharing all that God has done in your life, more will then be thankful for how God has also blessed them. For it is through sharing, that more will know what God can and will do for each of you. So be not afraid to share how your life has changed, for this gives people hope. For many are struggling because they are carrying their burdens alone. More will realize, through sharing, that if they too surrender to God, then God will enter more fully. Many do not realize how many souls have been saved just by sharing all that God has done in your life. Many do not realize that God uses those who are willing to humble themselves before men. Many do not realize that it is God who gives one the strength to overcome their weaknesses. If more realized this, more would not give up so easily.

God is purifying those who work hard on this earth and who do the Father's Will, for this is the time of God's cleansing power and grace. So be thankful for the change that is happening in each of you. Be thankful when you have the opportunity to receive the Sacraments, for this is how God's grace dwells in you. Be thankful for your Priests, for they are using their hands for Christ. When one realizes God's love for them, they then become a more thankful people. They then hunger more often for the Eucharist. They cleanse their soul more often so that they can be truly forgiven of their sins. They tell God daily how sorry they are for their sins and then they strive harder to do what only pleases Our Lord. By being thankful, one remains hungry and obedient to God's laws.

So today I ask that you be more thankful of all that God has done in your life so that you never forget how weak you are without God. I ask that you be more thankful each time that you are able to receive Jesus in the Eucharist. I ask that you continue to join hands so that hate, envy and pride never enter. I ask that you gather and pray as a community in the Church that you have been called to, so you grow in holiness. I ask that you be more willing to do what God is asking of you, no matter how difficult it may seem, so that more souls can be saved. Now, believe that when you respond and do what God is asking of you, then darkness will be removed, for wherever there is God, there shall be light.

Now, go forth as a community of believers so you go forth strong in your faith, for then eyes and ears will open to the whole truth. God will always be your strength. Just listen, respond and obey all that God is asking of you today. May God's love and peace be with you as you go forth in Jesus' name. Amen.

MESSAGE #1340 from the Blessed Mother January 29, 1998

My daughter, In order for growth, one must accept what God is teaching them. One must not deny their weaknesses or make excuses for their behavior. One must try hard each new day to become more like Christ. If one disobeys God or gives up, then one opens the door for Satan.

This is the time to prepare your soul, not to go backwards. For once you fall, it is much more difficult to get up again. Once you give up, you lose strength and then you become more focused on yourselves. So, today I ask that you humble yourself before Our Lord so that evil cannot enter. I ask that you be more willing to accept your faults, but then change, change your ways. I ask that you go to God to be consoled, for then you will see your true self, for God will place upon your heart, the truth. God will open your eyes as to whatever is causing you to fall. God will strengthen you each time you come to Him, for God knows how weak His children can be.

God knows, so please quit hiding your true feelings and share all that is troubling you. Share daily so your heart does not become heavy. Share daily so you do not have to carry your burdens alone. I promise you, you will then feel much better about yourself and all feelings of hurt and unworthiness will leave you. It takes a continuous effort on your part. It takes a heart that is truly open to doing God's Will. It takes time to pray and to come to know God, for without prayer, you will keep giving in to your will. Without a desire to please God, you will not be remorseful for your sins. Without a true devotion to my Son, you will take the easier road.

I am reminding my children because I see many of you struggling. I see how unhappy many of you have become. This not only pierces your heart, but it also pierces mine. For I see many trying to hold on, but because of rebellion and pride, many eventually let go. Because of one's selfish desires, they allow themselves to go backwards.

I say to each of you, quit pretending you can do it on your own, for you are weak without God, and without God's help you are destined to fail. Without total submission to God, you will not surrender. Without love in your heart, you will blame God and others for your faults. Without love, one seeks revenge. Without discipline, you will not change or be more honest with yourselves. Without God's grace, you become your own enemy.

So, today I pray for each of you. I pray that you seek God so you do not return to your old ways. I pray that you listen to God instead of yourselves. I pray that you surrender to God and ask daily for Our heavenly assistance. I ask this of you my children because I feel your pain. I ask this of you because I am concerned for you.

So please take heed to this message or there will be no growth. Take heed now or you will not be strong enough for the battles yet to come. In order for this army of mine to be strong, you will have to obey and march in unison. So, join hands and pray, pray from your heart, for then God will listen and respond to your requests. God will help each child who comes and takes refuge in His heart. So come, come to God so you receive the proper guidance.

I am with you, my children, for a mother never loses hope or gives up on her children. Remain close to God and please never let go of my hand, for then you will have peace, and love will remain in your heart. Amen.

MESSAGE #1351 from the Blessed Mother February 8, 1998

My daughter, God has a plan for each of His children, for each child is special in God's eyes. But in order to hear God's plan, one must spend time before Our Lord. One must listen to their heart and then respond. One must remove the distractions that are preventing them from hearing Our Lord. One must believe that God has a more perfect plan for you.

If more truly believed, they would respond to God's call instead of what others were telling them to do. They would be more patient and would not step ahead of God. They would spend more time with Jesus instead of becoming so busy doing worldly things. They would not want to waste their time. They would pray more and seek God for direction.

The problem today is that many have become too busy for God. Many do not take the time to truly come to know Our Lord. Because of this, many do not respond to what God is asking them. Many do not trust in God's plan for them. Many doubt that God truly exists, especially when one is not given instant answers. Many try to live their lives without the proper nourishment needed for their soul. Many do not see the importance of cleansing their soul in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Because of this, many have wandered away from true teaching. Many do not have the grace needed to live holier lives. When one refuses God's grace, they then refuse the direction needed to become more whole.

I say to each of you, come to know my Son now, for without guidance, the world will only pull you farther away from Jesus. Without direction, you will become confused and you will end up on the wrong path. You won't know which way to turn if you keep ignoring God. So please be not foolish, come to know Our Lord today. Spend time, quiet time so you are not distracted by the world. Spend time each new day, not just when you feel like it, for Our Lord wants to hear from you every day.

If you take time each new day, your relationship will then grow with Our Lord. You will then become more secure and confident in Our Lord. You will feel peace instead of feeling anxious. You will feel calm no matter how difficult it becomes, for God will reassure those who come, come back to Him. God will prepare you if you allow God into your heart. God will not leave you stranded. God will show you the way, so please stop searching for your answers. Go to God, for then you will be fed the truth. Go to God for all your needs and I promise you, God will give you what is best for your soul. God will provide all that you need to know, for God knows how much each of you can endure.

So trust and believe that God truly exists. Trust, so you come to know God. Spend time adoring Our Lord, for Jesus is truly present in the Monstrance. Jesus is truly present in every Consecrated Host, waiting for each child to come and receive Him. So remove your doubt and your fears and spend more time before Our Lord. For then your lives will change, for you will be directed in a better way.

Now come, come to the Church where God is calling you so that peace will enter your heart. Come today, for tomorrow may be too late. Come as little children, for they are more willing to be fed. Come, because you want God to come deeper into your heart, for then God will enter and your lives will change. God is calling His children, so please respond to God today. Amen.

MESSAGE #1615 from the Blessed Mother November 9, 1998

My daughter, This is the time of great preparation and conversion. So be glad and take part and rescue those who are deceived and who are being held captive by the enemy. With the help of your prayers, these chains that have bound Our children can be broken.

Please children, I am pleading with you, help me rescue those who have become a prisoner to the prince of darkness. This time is your time, so please take part and awake from your slumber. Take part now so more can come to know my Son, Jesus. Evangelize and spread your faith now, for in time it will become more difficult for you. In time, you will be denied for speaking the truth.

Don't wait, my children, prepare your soul so you have the grace needed to stay strong. Prepare your soul, for then others will see Christ in you. Keep your soul cleansed and nourished so that God can dwell in you. Respond now, for your hands and voice are needed all around this world. Be brave and don't give up on those who are ignoring you. Don't hide from those who are laughing at you, for in time they will no longer be able to criticize you. In time, they too will feel God's wrath. They will know just how much they offended God.

When this preparation time is over, many will suffer without a repentive heart. When this preparation time is over, God will cleanse this earth. Many will then tremble because they did not listen to Our heavenly pleas. Many will not be ready, especially those who are killing God's children. They will not be ready if they did not repent or cleanse their soul. Have pity on those whose hands and tools are stained with blood, for they will be severely punished. They will not be able to escape or make excuses for their actions. They will no longer be able to deny their wrong doing, for God will show them just how many children they aborted. Many then will die of fright and their soul will not be cleansed.

Yes, God's Justice will prevail, prevail soon after each child sees their soul. This will be God's final warning to those who are living in mortal sin. So please children, be more willing to be cursed at now for making the truth known. Be more willing to spread your faith and make the Commandments known, for in time you will be thanked by those who were on the wrong path. In time, many will repent if you go forth in truth. In time, your suffering will be over and you will be truly blessed.

So please remember this, my children, each time you want to give up on your brothers and sisters, for this will help you be more willing to be persecuted for your Faith. Each time you want to lash back at those who are not listening, just turn to God, for God will give you the strength needed to stay true and loyal to Our Lord. God will wipe your tears each time someone turns on you. God will embrace you and this will give you courage to keep moving on.

So please turn to God when you feel as though nothing is being accomplished on this earth and God will console you and will help you carry each new cross. God will be your strength, so please take refuge in Our Heart today. God will remind you each time you fall if you listen and obey God's commands. God will teach you, so please don't give up. Just trust in God each new day and believe that God will always be there for you.

Now, I ask that you increase your prayers for those who are living in darkness, for your prayers will help keep evil away. I ask that you work hard now, for this is the time that God has allowed for you to prepare your soul. This is the time of God's mercy and grace, so please do not be lazy, stay strong and vibrant for Our Lord. This time of preparation will not last, so move quickly, my children, and do all that you can to save souls.

I am still with you, my children, so please accept my motherly love and grace. Accept, by responding to these heavenly pleas. Your actions are needed, so take heed to what God and I are telling you today. I am your Mother, Mother of Grace, and I wish to thank each of you who are responding to these urgent requests. Amen.

MESSAGE #1632 from the Blessed Mother December 2, 1998

My daughter, If more of Our children prayed, they would be content with what they have instead of always wanting more. If one truly spent time with Jesus, they would not need so much material wealth to give them happiness. Their happiness would come from God and they would be given much joy. Interiorly they would have peace because their desires would change.

My children, are you still searching for happiness or have you come to know Our Lord? Has your prayer life changed or are you still ignoring God? Do you take Jesus with you wherever you go or are you choosing to walk alone? You will know by your actions, for if you are peaceful, only love will flow from your heart. If joy remains in you even when problems arise, then you are truly coming to know Our Lord.

Those who spend time with God will remain peaceful and calm through all trials. Those who take time to listen to God will be given much wisdom. They will know how to react in any given situation, for God will teach those who listen and who obey His commands. God will give each child the strength needed not to give in to temptation if they allow God to form them.

But those who do not listen or who do not spend time with God, they will not be given the direction they need. They will not know how to get up when they fall, if they keep refusing God's grace. Many will suffer if they don't take heed to the Gospel now. They will suffer without a personal relationship with God. For many it will be too late if they don't repent or start making some changes now.

I am reminding my children today, just as any good mother would do. I am reminding you because many are still trying to do it on their own. Many are refusing God's grace because they are not cleansing their soul. Many keep falling because they are not coming to Mass. Many do not want to give up their worldly ways because they have no desire to change. Many are waiting for their loved one to change instead of working on the areas in their life where they are weak.

Please children, believe that God wants to come to know you in a personal way. God wants to help you make some changes in your life. God has a plan for each of you, but it is up to you to listen. If you keep waiting for others to change, then God cannot work through you. If you keep blaming others for your actions, then change will not occur in you.

Today, I ask that you stop looking at others faults so that you can better yourself. I ask that you listen more carefully when God is talking to you. I ask this of you because God wants to use you in a powerful way. Each of you have weak areas and until you believe this, you will not be honest with yourself. You will just keep blaming others for the way you are acting.

It takes discipline, my children, and a humble heart, for pride and lack of humility will only pull you further away from God. It takes effort on your part and a willing spirit to do what God is asking of you. It takes patience and time because change does not come easy, but I promise you, your life will change if you surrender, surrender to Our Lord. For it is not until you surrender that God can work in you. Without total surrender, God cannot work completely in you. God will not force His way through those doors that you keep closing on Him, so it is up to you to keep your heart all the way open.

Because of my love and concern for you, I have come once again to remind you, so please be more cooperative so that God can help you. Be humble children and ask God to help you in those areas that are most difficult for you. Don't be ashamed to turn to God, for God is so forgiving. God is pleased when you come to Him so don't be afraid, just believe in your heart that God can help you change.

When God is firm with you, it is because He loves and cares for you. When God does not give you everything you want, then believe that God knows what is best for your soul. Believe, my children, that God's love is unconditional. Believe, so you come to God more often, for this is the only way change will start happening in you. This is the way because you cannot hear God if you keep ignoring Him. This is the way the truth will be made known to you, for without the truth, change will not occur in you.

So today, I want each of you to know that God and I love you so very much. Each of you are special and so very dear to us. We love you, that is why we are here to help you, so please accept my motherly assistance and Our love for you. Please accept, for then much light will be given to you. Darkness will be removed and peace and joy will enter your heart.

Now, go forth as true believers so that God can work in each of you. Amen.

MESSAGE #2134 from the Blessed Mother April 16, 2001

My daughter, It is time to write, so please, once again listen and then write all that I share with you. Begin today, for many need to hear the truth. Many are hungry and they need to be fed so they turn away from sin. I will continue to gather my children, so please do your part. Please write and relay all that I share with you.

Dear children, time moves quickly, so do not wait to turn to God. Turn to God now, for darker days await those who are living their life without God. Seek refuge now in Our heart, for the earth is trembling now. Turn away from sin and amend your ways so you are ready and prepared at all times. Love God with your whole heart, for then I promise you, your life will change. You will have peace and joy through all storms if you place your trust in God. Awake now so that I can protect you with my mantle. Much evil is prowling all around this world, so please armor yourselves now. Please pray and fast and do all that you can to help those who are living in darkness. Be an example for those who are sleeping, for how they will suffer if they remain blind, blind to the truth.

Please, dear children, open your hearts so that you can truly hear God speaking to you. Open your hearts so that God's love and warmth can enter more deeply. Please come back to Church and believe that Jesus is truly present in the Eucharist. Believe that God truly exists, for it is impossible to walk alone. Believe, believe in God so you are led in the right direction. Ask God to heal those wounds that are preventing you from coming back, back to Church. Ask God to guide you to a Church where those Priests are truly shepherding their flock. Ask and seek God's guidance so you can relearn your ways.

Please take these messages more seriously so you begin now to work on those areas where you are weak. Please listen to my heavenly pleas, for I am truly your mother. I have come to call each one of you so you are ready and prepared to meet God. Give your life back to God so that He can work miracles in you. Accept those gifts God has given you so that you can take part in saving souls. Accept and live all that I am teaching you so that the peace of God may enter your lives. Accept my love and concern for you, for I am truly here for you in a special way. I am here because of God's love for you, so please do not abuse this time. Be more thankful for this precious time that God has allowed.

Come back, dear children, and truly turn to God, for again I say to you, time, time is short. I am pleading with my children today, so please change your lives and convert before it's too late. Take my hand now so that I can gently lead you closer, closer to my Son, Jesus. I am waiting for a response from you, so please, please respond now. Please love and obey God or greater chastisements will occur.

My love I send to you today, so please now, accept my love and motherly assistance. Accept these messages. Accept and believe in God's love for each of you. Let us now pray for peace to dwell in the hearts of all mankind. Prayer is so important, so please pray, pray each new day. Amen.

MESSAGE #2239 from the Blessed Mother November 13, 2001

My daughter, Continue to do what Jesus tells you, so more repent and amend their ways. Continue to gather and pray with those whom God sends to you. Hearts will be touched and conversion will happen, through obedience to Almighty God.

My daughter, tell my children how much God loves them. Tell them God does exist so they turn to Him with an open heart. Tell the world that happiness comes from knowing God. Tell my children there is no longer time to walk alone. Satan will grasp those who refuse God's love and protection.

Please dear children, do not be fooled by the adversary. Awake now and come to know God. Awake all you who are sleeping, and give your life totally to God. The time of God's mercy is now, so please seek God. Please pray, trust, and open your hearts, and I promise you God will not forsake you.

In order to receive God's strength and guidance, you must open your hearts and allow God to work through you. You must surrender your will and live, live the Gospel. Today I ask that you have faith in God, so you persevere in love and fortitude. I ask that you pray more, so you truly, truly come to know God. Through prayer and a true devotion to Jesus, you will receive joy and peace in your hearts.

Rejoice now in my Son's mercy. Rejoice and be grateful for each new day. Amen.

MESSAGE #2441 from the Blessed Mother February 10, 2003

My daughter, Be grateful for this time in which God has allowed. Be grateful and use those gifts God has given you.

Today, I ask that all my children be grateful so you do not lose hope or confidence in Almighty God. Each time you pray, give thanks to God and be truly sorry for your sins. Be truly sorry for your sins and strive to do your best each new day. God will truly be by your side if you listen and obey Him. God will truly guide you if you ask, ask for His assistance. Those who are prideful are choosing to walk alone. Those who gossip and judge others truly offend God.

Today, I ask that you turn to God for strength. I ask that you do penance for your sins each new day. I ask that you look to God when you feel weak. God will truly help you through those difficult moments if you trust and rely on Him. So many today do not trust in God. Many do not take time to read and study Scripture. So many today have lukewarm hearts.

Yes, hearts are becoming colder because many are refusing to pray or take time to be with Jesus. In order to grow and blossom for Our Lord, you must love God more than your selfish desires. You must turn to God each new day, not just when you feel like it. You must turn to God instead of seeking consolation and strength from people. You must build your relationship with Jesus in order to do what I am asking of you.

Please do not keep your distance from God. Be true believers and make time to be with Him each new day. Reform your ways and seek to be meek and humble, humble children. Desire only what God desires for you and be hope-filled children. Allow God to have complete control of your lives, God will then dwell in you and you will have joy and peace. Today is the day to begin, so please open your hearts so that God can enter more fully. Ask, ask for God's guidance and you shall receive.

Now, please be little children of God and be open to His love and mercy for each of you. Seek to live in His truth and be more grateful for this time to truly, truly come to know Jesus. Now, go forth and be joyful children so that God's love and peace flow from your hearts. Amen.

MESSAGE #2470 from the Blessed Mother April 28, 2003

My daughter, Pray today for those who are suffering in any way, for many do not have peace in their hearts or in their home. Many, many struggle today because of their refusal to come to know Jesus.

My dear children, this earth is only temporary, but Heaven is forever. So please, please let go of your worldly ways and turn to God. Let go of your desires and make room for God. Only God can bring you true happiness. Only God can turn your sorrow into joy. God is the one you must adore, not your material possessions.

I am here today, to assist you so that your lives can change. I am here now, so please accept my love for you. Please take my hand so that I can lead you closer to my Son, Jesus. It is never too late to turn your lives around. Each day that God gives you is so precious. Each day, God is truly there for you, so please do not delay. Come to know God's love and mercy that He has for each of you.

Decide today and believe, believe in Almighty God. Believe in God and obey His laws. Believe in God and accept His Grace. Believe and pray and ask God to increase your faith. You cannot be true believers if you do not pray and turn to God each new day. You cannot be true believers if you do not make time for God. Surrender yourselves to God and allow Him to heal you so that you can live a holy life.

Today, I plead with my children because you are each so special to me. Allow me, today, to draw you closer to the heart of my Son. Allow me to assist you, for I truly am your Heavenly Mother. Begin today and fill your hearts with prayer, for this is how you will come to know God's love and mercy. Through prayer and a true desire to come to know God, it will truly happen.

Now, please not only listen, but respond to all that I am teaching you. Respond and allow these messages to transform your life. A response is a must so that conversion can happen, so please decide today and allow each new message to become imbedded in your hearts. I am truly with you each time you gather and pray. I am truly here to prepare the way, for the time, dear children, is drawing near. Listen and obey now and make time, quality time, to be with Almighty God. Amen.

MESSAGE #2519 from the Blessed Mother August 25, 2003

My daughter, Please remain faithful and do what God and I are asking of you. Allow my words to flow from your heart so more come to know our Dear Lord, Jesus. I am truly with you, so please persevere so more souls can be saved. Each time you pray, give thanks to God for the many blessings He has bestowed on you. Give thanks to God and give all honor and glory to Him. Without God, healings would not occur. Without God working through you, souls would not be saved.

So please tell all my children to be thankful for all that God is doing in their lives. Tell my children to start their day giving thanks and praise to Almighty God. All must be appreciative for the many blessings God has given them. All must be appreciative in order for God to truly work through them.

To be merciful, you must be a thankful people. To be merciful you must love God more than your desires. You must allow God to be in control of your lives. You must allow the Holy Spirit to work through you so that God can use you in a powerful way. You must not allow Satan to tempt you in choosing the easier road. You must be strong in your faith and rebuke Satan and all His followers. You must avoid sin and be willing to suffer for Christ. You must be true servants for our Lord and take the path that will lead you to Heaven.

Today, I want each of you to be thankful for God's guidance, mercy and love for each of you. I want you to be thankful so you do not abuse this time of saving souls. I want each of you to be more thankful and use those gifts God has given you. By truly being thankful, souls, many souls will be saved.

Now, please join hands and work together and be appreciative and do your part for the salvation of souls. I am truly with you each time you pray. I am truly with you when you give thanks and praise to Almighty God. Now please, please remember, to receive God's mercy you must be open to God's love. You must faithfully do your part and do whatever God is asking, asking of you. Amen.

MESSAGE #2538 from the Blessed Mother October 9, 2003

My daughter, Spend time with Jesus, for He longs to hear from you each new day. Spend time in Adoration and give thanks to God for the many blessings He has bestowed on you and your family.

Today, I want all my children to be grateful for all that God has done in your lives. Be grateful and give thanks to God, for He truly, truly loves each of you. America has been truly blessed, but all can be taken away if my children deny that God exists. This is why I am telling each of you to turn to God and be a more thankful people.

I have been telling you to pray more and to cleanse your soul. Those who are truly doing what I ask are truly pleasing God. Those who are coming to Mass as often as they can are on the right path. The foolish are those who have allowed their lives to become too busy for God. They are not praying or using their time wisely to prepare their soul.

Dear children, you must change your ways and be more appreciative for this time in which God has allowed. You must let go of your desires and spend more time with Jesus. You must not neglect your soul. You must be truly sorry for your sins. How can God forgive you if you do not ask for forgiveness? How can God strengthen you if you refuse to receive the Sacraments?

God cannot teach you if you refuse to listen, listen to Him. God is not happy when He sees so many children living in sin. It is time now to trust in God and to ask, ask for His assistance. It is time now to obey, obey all of God's commandments. There is no longer time to be living in sin. Begin today and take heed to the Gospel. Begin today and examine your conscience. Be truly sorry for your sins and do penance every day.

Be truly grateful each time you can come to Mass and receive Jesus. Don't take this time for granted. Be a more thankful people. Thank God each time you are able to share those gifts God has blessed you with. Thank God by truly giving all honor and glory to Him. Thank God by truly kneeling more and praying, praying from your heart. Today, I must remind my children to be more thankful for each new day.

Now, please let go of pride and be more humble. Let go of your ways and spend more time with Jesus. Imitate Christ by truly picking up your cross and being vessels of love. Live the Gospel and love, love one another. Live the Gospel and allow my son to dwell, dwell in you.

This message is for all my children, so please take heed and go forth and live God's Word. Amen.

MESSAGE #2559 from the Blessed Mother December 1, 2003

My daughter, Peace comes from knowing Jesus, so keep your focus on my Son and believe in His love for you.

Those who seek control are not being truthful. They do not turn to God for answers, they are relying on themselves. It is God whom we must place our trust upon. It is God, not man, who has the answers. If man is looking for signs, then they are not living their faith. God knows the most perfect timing, so one must trust and be patient and not lose hope.

These messages are God's loving way to assist His children. These messages are the truth and they will teach those who respond with an open heart. Many today do not want to hear the truth. They do not want to hear the truth because they do not want to change their ways or lifestyle.

Dear children, you must not allow arrogance to stand in the way. You must turn to God and be humble, loving children. You must be docile and listen, listen to God. You must not give in to your desires. You must be submissive to Almighty God. You must come to daily Mass as often as you can and truly listen to the Gospel. You must believe in the Sacraments and work hard to keep your soul pure. You must do penance for your sins and choose the path that will lead you to Heaven.

Those who preach the truth must also live it. They must reach out to all their brothers and sisters. Each person must live their vocation if they truly want to walk with Christ. A true disciple is one who loves and serves our Lord. In order to be true to God, you must build your relationship with Him. You must turn to Him and pray throughout the day. You must turn away from gossip and spend your time listening to my Son.

If you allow your ears to wander you will not hear God. God is truly speaking to all His children, but many today are not listening. Many are not spending enough time with my Son, Jesus. Many today do not know how to be silent because they have allowed busyness to rule their life.

Please, dear children, slow down and seek God's direction. Slow down and make time to be with God. Let go of your selfish desires and be obedient to God. Let go of your ways and give yourself completely to God. By letting go, God will then use you in a powerful way. So, today I ask that you thirst for holiness. I ask that you allow God to purify you so that change can happen in your life. I ask that you allow God to be in charge so you never step ahead of what He wants to do in your life.

Now, please ask for God's assistance, for the time is now to become spiritually strong. This time has been allowed, so please be wise and respond, respond now. In time you will understand and if you do your part, you will have peace through all storms.

Now, please live your faith and be open to all that you are being taught. Faith must begin in your heart, so be open to God's love and plan that He has for each of you. Amen.

MESSAGE #2578 from the Blessed Mother January 20, 2004

My daughter, In order for souls to be saved, you must continue to carry your cross with joy. You must continue to write and then share all that is imbedded in your heart. You must stay strong, strong for Jesus. Satan truly wants you to give up, for he knows souls are being saved through your obedience to God. When you feel confused, turn to Jesus and allow Him to guide you. Allow my Son to embrace you with His merciful heart. No one can take Jesus away from you, so please stay close, close to Him.

So many today do not want to wake from their slumber. They do not want to turn to God because they do not want to give up their sinful ways. They are choosing the easier road, which is not healthy for their soul. In time they will have to answer to God and they will suffer if they do not repent and amend their ways. So many today think they can hide their sins from God.

My daughter, tell my children that God sees everything. God sees how His children are behaving, for He sees deep within their hearts. God knows what is best for each child, so one must trust and believe in God's love. A trusting heart is how one will be led closer to God. A trusting heart is what is truly needed today.

In order to trust, my children must turn to God. They must pray and take time to hear God. They must let go of their worldly ways and obey, obey God. They must let go of pride and any hurt and be humble, submissive children. The road to recovery is not difficult if my children give their life to God. A wounded heart can be mended with God's loving assistance. A change of heart can occur if my children depend on God.

So, today I plead with my children to trust and believe in God's merciful love. I plead with those who are living in sin, to repent and take heed to the Gospel. I ask that you pray more and obey all of God's commandments. I ask that you take these messages seriously, for they will help you live a pure and holy life.

Now, please let go of your ways and do not allow Satan to destroy your soul. Be humble, loving children and do what God is asking of you. Do all that you can for my Son and be brave soldiers for Christ.

In time you will see your soul, so prepare, prepare now. Cleanse your soul and convert before it's too late. Believe, believe in the Gospel and do not allow yourselves to fall into temptation. Take my hand while there is still time and I will truly assist you on this earth.

Now, please embrace my love and live in God's love and peace. Amen.

MESSAGE #3066 from the Blessed Mother March 11, 2008

My daughter, Please continue to do what God and I are asking of you. It is so important to write each time I come to you. These messages are a gift from God, so please do not hide them in your heart. All must repent and amend their lives before it's too late. A response is needed, needed now. Do not wait for the warning, for God is warning His children now.

The world will suffer greatly if man continues to disobey God's laws. When you choose to live in sin, you are not listening to God. God is truly trying to wake His children, that is why so many messages have been given. Are you listening with an open heart? Are you truly living these messages? Are you making changes in your life? Are you truly obeying all of God's Commandments?

Please examine your conscience and then do what God is asking of you. Be responsible, loving children and do your part for the salvation of souls. Imitate My Son and light the way. Get down on your knees and pray and then listen, listen to God. God has a message for each of you, but you must be willing to change.

You must live the Gospel and truly live your faith. You cannot change God's words, you must obey them. You cannot make up your own rules to support your lifestyle. You must armor yourselves with the truth and obey each Commandment. You are only fooling yourself if you are picking and choosing which Commandment to obey. You must live in harmony with God.

Please be pure and begin today to move closer to God. Through prayer, God will guide you, so please, please dear children, love God above all else. Amen.
